

How to introduce Bill Harley:

Bill prefers short introductions. It is always best if you have a personal story about his work to welcome him to the stage. If not, some suggestions are below.

For a family concert or festival:

Penguin Books says: “Bill Harley has the uncanny ability to reaffirm life for listeners, be they five or fifty. Humor, empathy, intelligence and reality all radiate from his work and from him.” A Grammy award winning artist, Bill uses song and story paint a vibrant and hilarious picture of growing up, schooling and family life. A regular commentator for NPR’s All Things Considered and featured on PBS, Harley tours nationwide as an author and performing artist. From Seekonk Massachusetts please welcome...

For a festival or adult concert:

Nuovo Newsweekly says: “Bill Harley takes his life and turns it into art.” A Grammy Award winning recording artist, Bill is a regular commentator for NPR’s All Things Considered and featured on PBS. His vibrant and hilarious songs and stories have the uncanny ability to span the generation gap, remind us of our common humanity and challenge us to be our very best selves. Bill tours nationwide as an author and performing artist. From Seekonk, Massachusetts, please welcome...